PIGEONS ON A .* ABOREE Drink Liquor Spilled in the Street and Gar. Real Exhibition of kegs of liquor was jolting across a Whe of downtown car tracks when one of the kegs toppled and fell from the top of the pile into the street. It was thoroughly smashed, so the truckman whipped up his team and went his way without stopping. The rum flowed out over the street-one little dent in the paving collecting a visible moddle of it.

In a few minutes a pigeon came fluttering down to drink at the pool thus fortunately provided for thirsty birds. The initial taste was a surprise, but a second and a third soon followed, and soon the pigeon tottered fluttering away, too overcome to ffy. Other birds, seeing him there and anxious to wet their parching throats on so sultry a day, followed their brother ia his path of wicked intemperance.

Five minutes later a passerby was estonished to see a dozen pigeons in the guiter of the otherwise deserted street, some dancing drunkenly, others already sound asleep. A few feet away a hound of disreputable appearance was creeping up slowly and a trific unsteadily, on his unsuspecting and bibulous quarry. As he was almost among the birds his feet went unidenly in several directions and he lay in the gutter among the pigeons, growling sleepily to himself, for he, too, was drunk.

Only Empty Things Float. "I kept my head when I fell into the water," observed the young man. "How fortunate," replied the caustic maid; "it must have helped you so nicely to float,"

Petroleum shares continued their decline, and Rumely issues made new low records at 7 1-2 for the companies of the preferred in Emeralds Win Opening Baseball The Emeralds opened the baseball season Saturday by handing out a defeat to the Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs to the tune of 11-7. Lee and Wood pitched good ball for the Agries most of the game, but a "swat-fest" in the seventh and eighth innings, coupled with some loose work in the field by the college boys, yield-Paul, Lehigh, Coast Line and Northern Pacific were sensitive to pressure. Otherwise the railroad list held up fairly well.

The bank statement reflected the return to normal channels of funds paid out to meet April 1 interest and dividend requirements. Loans were cut down $10,000,000.
